NAPERVILLE, Ill., July 17 /PRNewswire/ -- Marked growth in the midst of a challenging economy, continuous expansion of their existing IT staff to meet demands of clients across the U.S., and their ongoing commitment to recruiting local fresh graduates. Successfully achieving these goals has earned Libsys Inc. NABR's 2009 award as one of "Chicago's 101 Best and Brightest Companies To Work For."

The National Association for Business Resources (NABR) announced the annual list on June 30, 2009.

"Seeing the list of this years, 'Best and Brightest', which represents so many well known and respected industry leaders, we are pleased and very proud that Libsys can share such esteemed company," said Mr. Shree Yerramsetti, President of Libsys. "The NABR's award is particularly gratifying this year, given the challenges that many companies have faced - both locally and globally."

Libsys Inc. develops, installs and operates multi-industry IT solutions for clients in a variety of industries including a list of Fortune 500 companies.

"We are honored to recognize the efforts of this year's 101 'Best and Brightest' companies. These companies have created impressive organizational value and business results through their policies and Best Practices in human resource management," said Jennifer Kluge, NABR president. "This award has become a powerful recruitment tool in the drive to attract and retain exceptional employees."

The NABR's annual list of "Best and Brightest Companies" compiles the results of an independent research firm that evaluates each company's entry in the following categories: communication, community initiatives, compensation and benefits, diversity and multiculturalism, employee education and development, employee engagement and commitment, recognition and retention, small business, recruitment and selection, and work-life balance.
